INTRODUCTION

DEVOTE EXTRA TIME FOR PRAYER THIS WEEK—The church-wide prayer week can help you practice the discipline of time spent with God in prayer, in his Word, and with his people. Attend at least one of the evening prayer times in a church members' home nearest you.

ANTICIPATE OPPOSITION FROM THE ENEMY—Whenever Christians devote themselves to prayer, the enemy sends skepticism, interruptions, doubts, and conflicts—all tempting us to abandon prayer. The devil doesn't want you to pray. Determine to persevere in prayer.

FOCUS ON THE THEME FOR EACH PRAYER DAY—Unless God urges you to stop everything else and pray for other concerns, discipline yourself and your group to pray around the selected theme and suggested items for prayer. Prayer week draws the church together.

MEDITATE ON THE BIBLE PASSAGES ON THE PAGE—Let the Holy Spirit speak to you through the Scripture readings for each day. Ask him to show you how the verses address your life, your family, our church, and our communities.

PREPARE YOUR HEART FOR INTERCESSION—Let the Holy Spirit draw you into God's presence, and respond to him as he directs you. Open your heart and your life to him before, during, and after your time of prayer.

USE THE PRAYER POINTS AS STARTING POINTS—The prayer points for each theme provide areas of emphasis, but they are not comprehensive. Let the Holy Spirit guide you and your prayer partners to pray for specific items or people related to the points.

CONCLUDE WITH THANKSGIVING AND PRAISE—God hears the prayers of his people, and he delights in them. Thank God for giving Jesus Christ as our only mediator. Then, praise him for listening to you and working to glorify himself through your prayers.
